ART/CRAFTS

OIL PAINTING WORKSHOP

While the class is designed to introduce oil painting to students, painters of all levels are welcome and will gain new ideas and insight from local artist. This class will include demonstrations, handouts, individual help and supervision enabling students to work on their own painting. Using a limited palette, the artist will guide students through her process for constructing a painting in the studio. Students will find the class environment low-key and friendly, designed to foster the sharing of ideas and techniques with plenty of time to paint. An extended two weeks is added to the class specifically designated for free painting time to finish painting projects. A supply list will be available at registration. COST: $140
