Your safety and that of our community is a priority for CNCC, and we want to work with to prevent the spread of illness in our communities. We are actively monitoring and evaluating this situation and making timely decisions based on the most up to date information. Thank you for your cooperation in helping to maintain a healthy learning environment, being considerate of your fellow students, and for your part in preventing the spread of illness.

If you do not plan to travel or those plans have changed and you are no longer traveling, please see your RA or contact housing at housing@cncc.edu so we can make arrangements.

Because of the seriousness of this situation, if it is identified you have violated this directive, you may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including expulsion.

In response to Coronavirus (COVID-19) issues, we would like to remind you that although you may not be in a high-risk category for COVID-19, We want to work with all students to prevent exposure and reduce the spread of the virus. The best way to stop the spread is to practice basic sanitization standards such as washing your hands with soap and water or using hand sanitizer also avoiding touching your face and mouth.

We ask that everyone is respectful of this need and to keep an open line of communication with CNCC. Also please adhere to established Center for Disease Control (CDC) and Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment (CDPHE) guidelines while the COVID-19 virus is active(See Attached for More Info and Links). Attached is current information regarding COVID-19 is regularly changing and these guidelines are subject to change, potentially while you are on vacation. We will keep you informed of our requirements but we ask students to maintain open communication with housing or John Anderson VPSA john.anderson@cncc.edu

Remember, if you are sick please stay home. If you have any questions, or need to discuss accommodations due to your personal situation, please get in contact with Housing or John Anderson Vice President of Student Affairs at john.anderson@cncc.edu as soon as you can.

Sincerely,

Jen Rea
